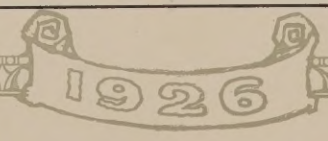
VIRGINIA INTERMONT COLLEGE
BRISTOL, VIRGINIA



Foreword

Here in the mountains of Virginia
Where the wind whispers low,
Spend we girlhood's happy hours
Rejoicing in friendship's glow.

Living and laughing and loving,
Ah, never a care nor a tear
Invaded this pleasant haven
To sponsor worry or fear.

But now our dream spell is broken
And leaves in each Senior's heart
Memories to keep as a token
To cheer us when we are apart.

So here is a record of memories
On history's pages we fix
Take them and treasure them always
With love for our class of '26.

—Cora Pearce.

Intermont Faculty Poem

There are teachers who sedately
Merely teach,—but now lately,
I have happened on a very different sort.
There are those who have the knowledge,
But, to girls away at college,
There is needed more:—a cheerful friendly sport.
There are those who are too serious,
Who make school life o'er tedious.
They have that well-known quiet dignity.
But for all their best in learning,
By their coldness they are spurning
Understanding, and make school a tragedy.
There are some who like gay mirth
And view a humorous earth:
They veil their offices with sad disaster.
But the teachers we respect
And admire, we elect—
And it's those who have both intellect and fun.
Oh, they're cheerful when we're blue,
And they're rather friendly, too—
Advisors and companions, both, become.
They're efficient in their teaching
And not too harsh with preaching,
They're not mere pedagogues just stiff and dumb.
They're teachers who can do
What they're paid for and more, too,
Who teach you, yet are friends, you'll agree.
They have the school spirit
Which their pupils all inherit—
That's the faculty we have at V. I. C.

POST GRADUATES

MARY DAVIS
ALEXANDRIA, VA.

Post Graduate in Expression

1926—Eoline Literary Society; Kappa Omega; Curry Club President; Executive Board; Y. W. C. A.; A. A.; Assistant Editor Annual; Sec. Club.

Of all the real true-blue girls in school Mary stands foremost. She can be funny and yet serious, but never does she forget to be always happy and cheerful. Those of us who have known Mary for two or three years know the meaning of a real friend and as she goes out into the world we wish her great happiness and predict for her great success.

Second floor East will miss you, Mary, but we'll be happy in the thought of knowing you were once a resident of Tea-Kettle Alley.

DOROTHY WHITEHEAD
CHATHAM, VA.

Post Graduate in Expression

1926—Eoline Literary Society; Curry Club Vice-Pres.; President Bata Nu; Y. W. C. A.; A. A.; Glee Club.

We hated to say good-bye to "Dot" last year, but somehow we felt that she would come back to us, for even though she finished in 1925, the "Post Graduate" privileges were not to be disdained; then, too, "Dot" knew she had left many friends who wanted her to return. Are we glad she did? Well, if we had her powers of expression we might be able to express our joy to have had her another year, and again had we been endowed with her dramatic ability we might be able to show our deep sorrow when she leaves us this time forever.

Here's health and wealth to a true comrade. When we think of "Dot" we'll always say, "She is a girl of marvelous worth."

FRANCES ADAMS

FORMOSA, VA.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; A. A.; Y. W. A.; President Art Club; Art Editor Annual; Vice-President Sigma Delta Phi; Senior Class President, Executive Board.

An ideal Intermont girl, a girl whom we as Seniors are proud to claim as our leader—a girl Intermont will not forget. "Frank" is that kind of a person who considers every one her friend, and always is ready to lend a helping hand, drive away the blues, and claim a laugh—for "Frank" is witty and a most pleasing companion. True to her friends, true to her ideals, and true to herself. With her black hair and eyes of brown, and her winning smile, "Frank" will make friends readily, wherever she goes, friends who will love her for herself, and admire her many talents; friends who will be always proud of her.

RUTH ELAINE ADDINGTON

COEBURN, VA.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society.

Although Ruth is just a wee little girl she is a bundle of enduring love and energy. She has worked hard in her courses and has gained a good name by it. Because of these unimposing assets, we are sure that she will become a "Bower" in the world some day.

IRENE AKERS

BUFFALO RIDGE, VA.

Literary Diploma

1924-26—

Irene is very studious, though jolly and friendly. We know that she will make a success in life, for with her untiring efforts and diligent study Irene will be well prepared to win life's battle. Much happiness we wish you, and as you leave Intermont's portals remember our love will go with you.

MILDRED AKERS

BUFFALO RIDGE, VA.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—

Akers is right, for Mildred has acres of knowledge. She is always ready when working time comes around. In spite of this, she has won a place in many hearts, and is a friend that will never be forgotten. Success always is our wish for you, Mildred, and may your Intermont days never be forgotten.

ELIZABETH ALDHIZER

ROANOKE, VA.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; Athletic Association; Student Government Procter; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Y. W. A.; Roanoke Club; Glee Club; Student Volunteer Band.

If you are looking for a friend,
Some one on whom you can depend
To cheer you when you're feeling blue,
And understand the things you do;

Who hears and answers duty's call,
And neither frowns nor frets withal,
Whose love of work, and love of play,
Brings pleasure to the toilsome day,

Here she is, you know her name;
We send her forth to win high fame,
And with her joy with hearts sincere
And bless the fate that sent her here.

GENILLA ATKINS

HAZEL RIVER, VA.

Literary Diploma

1925-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; Glee Club.

A sweet, winsome, brown-eyed lass came to us this year, winning in many hearts a warm spot. Genilla is modest and mild, but when one knows her the reserved manner is cast aside and a most talkative, entertaining person is found in place of the quietest of girls.

AILEEN BALL

ARROWSMITH, ILL.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; President Student Government.

Aileen not only has high ideals but she puts them into practice. She can always find something good in everything and everybody and it just seems to come natural with her to play the "Polly-anna game." She's a girl worth knowing.

GENEVA BANE

CHRISTIANSBURG, VA.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Secretary of Y. W. C. A.; Y. W. A.; Eoline Literary Society; Athletic Association; Phi Beta.

Cheerfully wending her way through Intermont, loved and admired by all her classmates, Geneva is the embodiment of those sweet, altogether feminine qualities of bygone days.

BRYTE BLACK

CHASE CITY, VA.

Literary Diplomo

1924-1926—H. L. S.; President Y. W. A.; Y. W. C. A.; Annual Staff.

"Bright"—what a delightful name and how admirably it portrays its owner. It is inseparably linked with our campus activities, and its owner holds a large place in the minds and hearts of Intermont girls. To know Bryte is to realize that she finds happiness in serving and wealth in friendship.

LOUISE BRAMM

BRISTOL, TENN.

Concert Diploma in Piano

1924-1926—

Louise defies her red hair by having an even, sweet disposition. Aside from being the truest, sweetest, most lovable girl any one could want for a friend she is very artistic. Her musical ability gives promise for a very successful and happy future.

HELEN NEWELL CANNON
ALEXANDRIA, VA.

Teacher's Piano Diploma

1924-1926—Eoline Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Secretary-Treasurer Athletic Association; Captain Advanced Special Basket-ball Team; Sigma Tau Sigma.

Whooper up, whooper up,
Whooper up some more;
Bang, Bang is a girl
That we all adore;
She's got the pep, got the rep,
She sho can play the game
And if you live with her very long
You'll surely think the same.

"Bang's" all right and "Bang" sho suits her fine. She "banged" to V. I., "banged" into the hearts of the girls and teachers, "banged" into all the school activities, "banged" up to get her diploma, and if she "bangs" on through life as she has "banged" in the last two years, "Bang" will come out on top and you'll hear of SOME "banging" some day.

EVELYN CHRISTIAN

BRISTOL, TENN.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Eoline Literary Society; Curry Club; Theta Delta Tau; A. A.; Y. W. C. A.; Expression Editor of Annual.

To see Evelyn is to think of spring days, all "bright" and sun-shiney, but her smile tells you that—her wonderful red hair is very much the same shade of a gorgeously brilliant sunset. Her vivacious and lovable manner have won friends for her who will always remember Evelyn as a good sport, a brilliant student, an intertaining reader and the best of pals.

HILDA COOPER

HAGERSTOWN, MD.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—E. L. S.; Y. W. A. Council; Chi Delta; A. A.

"To know her is to love her"—Hilda Cooper, better known as "Tillie" is that quiet, conscientious type that rapidly wins the admiration of everyone. She is not only lovely to look upon but she possesses a magnetic personality. We all know that "Tillie" is a very studious girl and at last we deem her "an all-round good sport."

BYRDA ESTELLE ECHOLS

MARION, VA.

Literary Diploma

1925-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; Y. W. A.; Y. W. C. A.

"She who sayeth little thinketh much."

Although quiet, "still water runs deep," Byrda is one of the sweetest and one of the fairest and squarest girls in school. There is always that ready answer when we go to her for help. She is the kind of pure and wholesome girl one likes to meet. Already her missionary spirit has answered "Here am I, send me." We think she is expecting to be a pastor's assistant. Perhaps she will take a P. W. degree some day. We shall miss Byrda from old V. I. C. and we wish her God-speed in her life's work, whatever it may be.

MARTHA FLOWERS

ATLANTA, GA.

Concert Diploma in Voice

1923-1926—President Harrisonian Literary Society; Cauldron Staff; Photograph Editor Annual; Y. W. A. Council; A. A.; Glee Club; Sigma Delta Phi.

What does that word "cheerfulness" imply? It means a contented spirit; it means a pure heart; it means a kind and loving disposition; it means a generous appreciation of others and a modest opinion of self; and the one word with all its meaning applies to no other than our own dear Martha.

GRACE FORD

SWORDS CREEK, VA.

Teacher's Diploma in Piano

1922-1926—Eoline Literary Society; President Delta Psi Omega; D. D. F. Club; Assistant Business Manager of Annual; Y. W. A.; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Dear, sweet ole Grace! The girl who has a smile for everybody and a heart almost unbelievably huge. We're awfully glad that her head is securely fastened to her shoulders, for she would surely be headless should anyone take a fancy for it. She is also quite a talented young lady—something of a banjo picker—and incidentally plays the piano and sings. It can be truthfully said that our Grace is an all-round girl, loved and admired by everyone and a girl who is bound to succeed in everything she undertakes.

KATHLEEN FRAZIER

ALTAVISTA, VA.

Voice Concert Diploma

1924-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; Council Y. W. A.; Y. W. C. A.; Curry Club; Glee Club; A. A.

Will wonders do justice to "Kat?" No! One must know her, feel the sunshine and happiness she radiates in order to truly appreciate her. Brilliant in her classes, inspiring all of us with her determination. She is the very essence of true worth. Our love and wishes for a happy and successful career go with you, "Kat," our little "sunshine maker."

EVELYN GILL

ALEXANDRIA, LA.

Concert Piano

1924-1926—Vice-President Eoline Literary Society; Cabinet Y. W.C. A.; A.A.; Vice-President Senior Class; Vice-President Sigma Tau Sigma; Business Manager of Annual.

All who know "Gill" love her for her frankness and her sincerity. She is not a flippant, not a book worm, not a long faced "good girl," but a conglomeration of spicy characteristics along with substantial and practical ideas about people and things. She is a true pal and an all-round girl.

Here's to "Gill," friend so true,
Friends like her are all too few;
A friend to have and a friend to hold,
To love and cherish when life grows old.

EVELYN GRAVETT

ALTON, VA.

Literary Diploma

1925-1926—Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Kappa Phi.

One whose deeds are a little whiter, one who is the same today as tomorrow, one who will share your joy and sorrow, one who will lend as quick as she will borrow—that's what we call a friend. This describes Evelyn because she is one of the nicest and sweetest girls at V. I. She is a friend to all and loved by everyone.

NELL GRIGSBY

LEBANON, VA.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Eoline Literary Society; President Athletic Association; Y. W. A.; Y. W. C. A.; Junior Basket-ball Team; Athletic Editor of Annual; President Chi Delta.

One of the Old English I's goes to Nell, that explains itself—it means that Nell is one of our very best athletes, and that's saying a lot 'cause we are most proud of our leaders, and we all know Nell is surely one. It is true Nell is there any time, any place, anyhow, no matter whether it's the basket-ball court, classes or in her room; she may not be so big, but precious things come in small packages. Luck to Nell, always.

MAHALA HAYS

NASHVILLE, TENN.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Secretary Harrisonian Literary Society; President Student Government; Y. W. C. A.; Y. W. A.; A. A.; Winner of Science Medal.

Perhaps you think it is an easy job to have so much to do, carry off so many honors and keep sweet all at the same time? If so, try it. Somehow Mahala manages it, and that's one of the reasons why we all like her so much. Mahala says she is going to be a nurse, thereby making us wickedly envious of the sick. She has won her rep as a leader and regular fellow in her class, so we can only wish her "the best of luck," trusting her to make it good.

HELEN HILL
SULLIGENT, ALA.

Concert Diploma Piano

1924-1926—Vice-President Harrisonian Literary Society; Reporter Delta Psi Omega; D. D. F.; Secretary Senior Class; Music Editor of Annual; Y. W. C. A. Council; Athletic Association.

Helen is the girl we all adore for who could resist her? For a friend staunch and true, she can't be beat, and sometimes her heart must surely burst, so filled with love for others it appears; but just wait till you hear her play! She can dust the keys with perfect ease and grace to say nothing of harmony, and unlike some of our world famed artists, she always has an encore to delight her audience. Can she sing? Well, rather! Can she paint? Of course. "To make a long story short," she is a very talented young lady and we feel sure she will succeed whether it be to delight the world or one man's heart. She says she's "Alabamay Bound," but we predict that the haunting strains of "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginia" will intrude and claim recognition.

MARION HOLLEY

APPALACHIA, VA.

Concert Diploma in Voice

1922-1926—Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Glee Club; Athletic Association.

In her four years with us "Pat" has won our hearts with her beautiful voice. She is talented, artistic, capable, and her friends prize her great loyalty.

ELIZABETH JOHNSON
WELCH, W. VA.

Domestic Art
Teacher's Diploma in Piano

1924-1926—Delta Psi Omega; H. L. S.; W. Va. Club; Literary Editor of Annual; Y. W. C. A.; Y. W. A.

It is nice to be natural when you're naturally nice. That's "Lib." She is jolly, chuck full of fun, she is always nice to everyone. We think she will make French her life study.

MARY BAKER JONES

BOWLING GREEN, KY.

Diploma in Piano

1925-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; Kentucky Club.

Although Mary Baker has been with us for only a few months, she has won many friends who will long remember the sunny smile she brought to Intermont from "Ole Kentucky." By the far-away expression in her eyes, we can readily guess that she is in another "Brown study," not meaning dark thoughts, however.

MARION LEE KENNEDY

BEAUMONT, TEXAS

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; Athletic Association; Theta Delta Tau Club.

"Full of fun and mischief, too; doing things she shouldn't do."

Here's to "Spike," she is our idea of a good old girl, always in for fun and the best pal one could name. With her black hair and green eyes, she would attract attention anywhere.

MARY MARTIN

GLADYS, VA.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Y. W. A.; A. A.; Harrisonian Literary Society.

A steady girl, both meek and mild;
Her modesty, it is complete;
She's not so big, she's not so small—
Just a real nice girl, that's all.

KATHLEEN MORTON

KINGSPORT, TENN.

Concert Piano Diploma

1924-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; D. D. T. Club; Y. W. A.; Y. W. C. A.; Tennessee Club; Delta Psi Omega.

Kathleen, Nature made you what you are and never made another, for when you play, all else must stay, for who could resist your fingers' play. You are a quiet, sweet, hard-working girl and succeed in securing that for which you work. May life hold in store for you rich blessings.

CORA CHENEY PEARCE

BUNKIE, LA.

Home Economics Diploma

1924-1926—Treasurer of Harrisonian Literary Society; Louisiana Club; Y. W. A.; Athletic Association; President Sigma Delta Phi; Editor-in-Chief of THE INTERMONT; Glee Club.

Cora is perhaps the one girl in whom is embodied all that goes to make the perfect, well-rounded, symmetrical woman. She is conscious and true to her ideals and thus is able to meet issues faithfully and squarely. We love her for her sunny, friendly disposition, and with her keen sense of humor and sportsmanship she has won a lasting place in many hearts. So we love her because "she's not too good, she's not too bad; she's just right."

KATHLEEN DOUGLAS PUCKETTE

NARUNA, VA.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Y. W. A.; Gleam Follower; B. Y. P. U.; A. A.

Steady, reliable, always ready to help others. She is just the sort of a pal we like to go to with our joys and sorrows, for we know we will get a sympathetic understanding. She will always make friends no matter where she might go.

THELMA JANE RICHMOND

GATE CITY, VA.

Literary Diploma

1924-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Y. W. A.; Glee Club; Chi Delta; A. A.

"Drink to me only with thine eyes" can truly be said of Thelma. Though seemingly of a quiet, reserved nature, those who know her best find many secrets hidden in the depths of her deep brown eyes. With truthfulness and unselfishness as her ideals we are sure she will succeed in anything she attempts to do.

MARGIE ROBERTSON

BRISTOL, VA.

Literary Diploma

1925-1926—Harrisonian Literary Society.

A most pleasing personality and a charming manner are marked characteristics of Margie. We would never guess her daily path is not always the smoothest, because for everyone she has a smile and a word of pleasant greeting. She possesses qualities which if possessed by everyone would make this world an ideal place in which to live. We predict for her a bright future and we all know that Margie will win a name of which Intermont will be proud.

JOSEPHINE SELFE
BRISTOL, TENN.

Concert Diploma in Voice

1924-1926—

In "Jo" we have a rare combination, for she is pretty, capable, artistic and dependable. She is a true "pal" to her many friends who are certain of her success whether it be a career as an artist or as a homemaker.

DOROTHY VIRGINIA SMITH

RICHMOND, VA.

Domestic Science Diploma

1923-1926—Treasurer Eoline Society; President Kappa Omega; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Y. W. A. Council; A. A.

Once a friend, always a friend can truly be said of "Dot," for she always proves herself a real true friend and she is loved by all who know her.

True blue—that's "Dot," and we prophesy a brilliant future for her unless "Buck" thinks she should practice "Domestic Science" instead of teaching. Our love and our best wishes for happiness and success go with you, "Dot," as you leave V. I. school days and pals.

MARGARET ELIZABETH STAPLES

RICHMOND, VA.

Domestic Science Diploma

1924-1926—President Harrisonian Literary Society; Vice-President Kappa Omega; A. A.; Y. W. C. A.

"Mike" will always hold a place in the hearts of her friends. She has proven to all of us what a wonderful smile and a sweet disposition really mean. In the next few years we expect "Mike" to take up an extensive study of "Mark" Anthony in which we hope she will have much success. We all agree that "Mike" will make a wonderful house for some lucky man. Luck to you, "Mike," and may you have a most successful and happy future.

CARMEN TRELLES

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Secretarial Diploma

1924-1926—Eoline Literary Society; Kappa Omega; A. A.; Y. W. C. A.; W. W. W.'s; Treasurer Senior Class; President Secretarial Club; President Louisiana Club.

"True and sincere, equal and kind,
Another just like her is hard to find."

When others forsake you and life seems a drudge, sweet ole Carmen is always ready with her winsome personality and helping hand to pull you up from the deeps of despair. Her ever-ready smile is a well-known factor of the campus. Not only good in feasts, eatin', and sitting up all night, much to the annoyance of the Executive Board, but she also excels as a student, hence, commanding the respect of every member of the faculty.

VIRGINIA WADE

ABINGDON, VA.

Literary Diploma

1925-1926—Eoline Literary Society; Y. W. A.; Y. W. C. A.; A. A.

"V. A.," a mighty good pal to have, came to us from Stonewall Jackson. She's cheerful, pleasant and willing—a loving, sweet friend. We wish we could have claimed you longer. Good luck, much happiness always.

HELEN WILLIAMS

HATTIESBURG, MISS.

Literary Diploma

1925-1926—Eoline Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Mississippi Club; A. A.; Association; Beta Nu.

Here's to Helen, one of the most versatile at V. I.—a "Friend" who can sympathize and understand your every mood. She has unusual views of an ideal life and a beautiful insight into religion. I hope that in years to come I may have the joy of looking into your life, Helen, and seeing the many ideals that you have realized.

Say you saw something flash by? Yes! That's "Betty"—when our little Yankee came down to see us, we declared a truce with "Ole Mass." and opened our hearts to her (who could help it?). "Betty" is always there; she is the life of the party. Whenever you see her she is laughing and happy and gay—tennis! You should see her as she converts the tennis court into a dance floor! "Betty" could be called "Bitty," for she is so small, but in that wee, small parcel is an abundance of joy, tears, life and animation that can be equaled by no one.

MARION LOUISE YEWELL

OWENSBORO, KY.

Home Economics Diploma

1924-1926—Secretary Harrisonian Literary Society; Member of Executive Board; Glee Club; Secretary and Treasurer of Kentucky Club; Secretary Sigma Delta Phi; Society Editor of Annual.

Pretty, attractive and accomplished—that's Marion; and yet a conscientious student, one that is ever eager to do her part in any undertaking that will promote the best interests of our College. She never neglects duty for pleasure, but is one of those fortunate persons who always seems to have time for both. We're sure wherever she goes she will always be a credit to Intermont.

ANNE COLE BROWN, Senior Mascot

Senior Class History

Friends, classmates and those who are concerned, history repeats itself and once again here is a Senior Class to place its records upon the annals of Virginia Intermont College. We take this place to relate the History of the Class of '26.

It was the fall of 1922 when eighteen Freshmen were ushered into these halls of fame and knowledge. Green? Oh my, yes, but vibrating with life and a willingness to overcome their greenness. When 1923 came around, not all of the Freshmen returned but there were enough new Sophomores to make up a most vigorous class. It was on Class Day that the voices of the Sophomores could be heard singing the "Daisy Chain," as they marched along with their sister classmates, the Seniors.

After two years of diligent struggling along to an end of apparent success, September, 1924, brought with it a band of determined Juniors. Everything looked most hopeful and prosperous, for upon their arrival these old girls found a large re-enforcement to help push them on to success. And success it was, for everything that the Juniors started turned out splendidly. Superlatives are needed to praise the Juniors for they put their best into everything. Which one of us will ever forget the Junior Circus in the gym? Who looks back, without delight, upon the scene when Mrs. Murrell and Miss Pflug strolled into the gym with their faculty family? Then came the Senior Banquet, which was in the form of a track meet, with Martha Goodwin as "toastmistress!" This was a great success and much pep was shown by both classes.

Fall of 1925! What does this mean? We are no longer insignificants but people with a world of knowledge. There is a great goal for which we are each individually grasping—our diplomas. Yet even with this in view there is a feeling of dismay, we want to linger awhile and look back upon these halls which hold so many happy memories. The Junior-Senior Banquet of this year is yet to come, and then we will hand down our blessing to the Junior Class for success next year.

Like the Indians of old, we, the Seniors, have reached "the end of the trail!" Our college days are over—we part with those whom we love. Thus the Class of '26 goes out.

"Intermont, dear old Intermont,
We must say farewell to thee!"

Senior Class Prophecy

In a beautiful land where dreams come true,
I had a dream, classmates, of you,
And in these dreams of years gone by
We had drifted forever from dear V. I.

And in my dream I saw that all
Had answered life's urgent call,
And here, classmates, as you'd like to know,
Is my dream of you as through life you go:

Frances Adams I soon was told
Was in far off Paris studying paintings of old,
Productions of her genius are very well-known,
For in art museums they are often shown.

I took a trip to gay New York,
The city of mighty name,
On Broadway stage our own Helen Williams
An actress of no little fame.

Bryte Black in the Y. W. A.
Had become an important worker;
She makes the life for others much brighter,
Lessens their burdens and makes them lighter.

By a large concert hall as I happened along
I heard a beautiful song,
And when I stepped into the vast inside
Kathleen Frazier's voice filled my heart with pride.

In this dream of mine I again was told
That Nell Grigsby taught Espanol;
Betty Yeadon was in a school, too,
Teaching physical "Jim" as she had hoped to do.

In Johns Hopkins Hospital was Aileen Ball,
Among the nurses she was head of all;
She healed the lame and cured the sick,
Helped them all to get well very quick.

Senior Class Prophecy—Continued

In Peabody Conservatory playing so well
Was Evelyn Gill—needless to tell;
Kathleen Morton was giving concerts, too,
And the praises they got were not a few.

Mahala Hays had chosen the profession
Of teaching mathematics from session to session,
While Margaret Staples in a far off town
Had married "him"—a man of renown.

In this wonderful dream I took a trip South
Where the wind blows the bait in the fishes'
mouth;
To Cora Pearce's home I was shown,
But as Mrs. Robert Bailey she is better known.

Marion Yewell, our own dear Marion,
I found to my surprise
A domestic science teacher in a Northern school
Showing others the mysteries of cakes and pies.

Grace Ford, I soon was told,
With Helen Hill had grown quite bold
And with their orchestra had gained renown
In playing for dances from town to town.

I crossed the state to New Orleans—
That beautiful town of historic scenes;
In the papers I see Dorothy Smith's name,
As a dancer there she had won great fame.

And as I woke my dream fled from me;
Myself in the future I could not see,
But I'll be happy wherever I dwell
Knowing my classmates have done so well.

Senior Song

Far o'er the hill top sounds the Seniors' last farewell;
Farewell, dear Intermont, we have loved thee well;
Farewell, friends and classmates,
Halls of learning, campus fair,
In our hearts forever you'll leave mem'ries rare.

Intermont, dear old Intermont,
We must say farewell to thee;
Intermont, dear old Intermont,
True we'll ever be.

Echoes from the Department of Dramatics

The year of 1925-'26 has been marked at happy intervals by a number of highly enjoyed plays given by the Department of Dramatics under the direction of Miss Nunnally, the instructor.

These occasions have made red-letter days in our year's calendar, always anticipated with greatest pleasure and looked back upon with a thrill of delight.

The girls who participated, the actresses, the "stars" themselves, in spite of the hours and hours of hard work in nightly rehearsals, derived, perhaps, the most pleasure of all from their efforts—who knows?

To take a backward look. There was the first little play of the year, "Antiques," at the first open meeting of the Eoline and Harrisonian Societies, October 17, when the new girls laughed for the first time at our "Matchless Mary;" they have kept it up ever since—Cora Pearce and Kit James also played excellent parts in this play. Two weeks later came that spooky, uncanny play, "Lady Anne," on Hallowe'en night. We can feel even now, as we think of it, little cold chills creep along our spinal column as we recall Lillian Brown, in her best dramatic style, telling the ghost story, in the midst of which the ghost mysteriously appears out of a secret panel in the wall. On November 11th, Armistice Day, came that great dramatic success, big and powerful, "When the Whirlwind Blows." We have only to recall that Palmira, Dorothy and Mary composed the cast, thereby making by their able efforts, one of the strongest plays of the whole year. We still hear ringing in our ears, "Wonderful! Wonderful!" This strong cast three days later gave for the Eoline Society on the evening of November 14th an unusually strong little play, "Finders Keepers" and again the "trio" added another leaf to their crown of laurel.

Next came our beautiful Christmas play, "Bird's Christmas Carol," on December 14th, with Helen Williams playing the lead in the role of little Carol. She was supported by a strong cast including Velda Craver, Kay Drake, and Louise Bowers. We shall not soon forget the sweet and beautiful Christmas spirit of this appealing play.

January, because of the late start after the holidays, followed so soon by examinations, went by unmarked by anything from the Dramatic Class, but February gave splendid opportunity for two entertaining plays on St. Valentine's Day—"Miss Hitty's Valentine." This was a bright little play in a very light vein and delighted the large audience. The cast was composed of "Bang" Cannon, Carrel Duerson, Mary Bell Wheeler, Sidney Newton, Helen Bell Henry and Elaine Newton. Another play on the same program was "Cupid's Trick," certainly to be classed among the best of the whole year, strong cast and splendid acting by Lillian Brown, Velda Craver, Mary Davis and Kay Drake, with Margaret Adams in the butler's role.

The next in the dramatic line came on the evening of March 8th, when three one-act plays were given before a large and appreciative audience. "The Open Door" was played by Palmira Carbajal and Dorothy Whitehead. We had anticipated with pleasure another opportunity of seeing these two artists, and in this very strong play by Alfred Sutro they thrilled us with their intense acting and vocal expression. Then in the next play on the program came quite a striking contrast in the charming and clever little farce, "Moth Balls," played by Kay Drake, Helen Williams and Velda Craver. This dramatic program concluded with a most unusual play, one long to be remembered—"Will-O-The-Wisp"—composing the cast were Helen Williams, the white-faced girl; Mary Davis, the old country woman; Dorothy Whitehead, the poet's wife; Lillian Brown, the serving maid. The closing lines of this weird little play, the mournful wails of the country woman and the maid, will linger long in our minds, "Woe to one who follows the Will-o-the-Wisp! Woe! Gone she is and she'll never come back!"

At this point we go to press—but just ahead of us are three more excellent one-act plays to be given March 29th, also our big commencement play in which we shall no doubt attain to the greatest heights of all, making a fitting climax to a most successful year in our Dramatic Work.

Eoline Swing

Eolines, Eolines, we love you,
We know you are the only ones.
For the green and the gold,
It will never grow old,
Watch our step! See our "pep!"
Eolines, Eolines, Eolines, Eolines,
Eolines, Eolines, we love you,
And to you we will all be true,
So rah! rah! rah! rah! rah! rah!
Rah! rah! rah! rah! rah! rah!
Rah! rah! rah! rah!
Oh, by Jiminy——
Eolines, Eolines, we love you!

Harrisonian Swing

Oh, let us keep our colors flying,
And fling our banner high,
We're winning when we're trying,
And we're going to try.
We'll tell the world, girls,
Our crowd is the best;
So, come, let us cheer for old H. L. S.
We'll go to the battle and fight till we win,
And then watch us do it all over again.
Hurrah for our banner,
Three cheers for success—
That's the spirit of H. L. S.

Organizations

Y. W. C. A.

The Young Women's Christian Association occupies a distinct and important place in V. I. College life which no other organization can or attempts to fill.

The purpose of this Association is to associate young women in personal loyalty to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, to promote growth in Christian character and service through physical, social, mental and spiritual training; to become a social force for the extension of the Kingdom of God.

Virginia, Too

From North and South and East and West,
From far across the sea,
Come maidens dark and maidens fair,
Virginia, to thee.

The Senorita with her shawl,
The Chinese and her cue,
The Cuban and the Mexican,
And the American, too.

From thirty states they come to seek
Virginia's healthful clime,
They come for strength and knowledge, too,
And find them every time.

And after years of work and play,
When they must say "adieu,"
They have two states instead of one,
Theirs and Virginia, too.

Resume of Athletics

The interest in athletics began this year with a successful inter-class track meet. The Junior class won first place.

Enthusiasm ran high when class basket-ball teams were organized and began a term of hard practice so as to bring honor to the classes they represented. Due to the fact that there was not sufficient material from each class to make up a team, four equally matched teams were picked by our capable coach. These teams were sponsored by the three (3) college classes and the high school department; the Junior team being victorious. A varsity of ten girls were chosen and awarded black I's.

Tennis and swimming are now in full sway. We are looking forward with great interest to the Red Cross Life-Saving tests, tennis tournaments and a spring track meet.

Hail Intermont

Oh, you had better be loyal to V. I.,
Or you won't go to Heaven when you die.
Oh, you had better be loyal to V. I.,
Or you won't go to Heaven when you die.
For we are the people, people—
We are the people, people—
We are the people, so they say,
For we wear the black and gold—
We wear the black and gold—
We wear the black and gold today.

Hail Intermont, Hail!
Hail Intermont, Hail!
Um tra la, we sho' have got the pep—
Hail Intermont, Hail!

Jokes

Miss Egbert—"What is the word 'zinc'?"
Louise Lambert—"That's the French pronunciation for think!"

Frances, to V.—"What is the matter?"
V. Pearce—"I just wrote a flowing theme on milk and Miss Kent condensed it."

Marion Yewell—"Who was the smallest man in history?"
Helen Williams—"I'm ignorant; who?"
M. Y.—"The Roman soldier who went to sleep on his watch!"

Our idea of a tight wad is one who washes paper plates.

"They say that a student should have eight hours sleep a day."
"True, but who wants to take eight classes a day?"

Helen Bell—"Is he a brave man?"
Mish.—"Nothing less than heroic. Why, that man has hung frat pins on three girls living in the same town."

Mr. Brown—"The next person that says "Huh" will be sent out of class."
Chorus—"Huh!"

"Helen, what time did you get in last night; about one o'clock?"
"About one? What was that noise that I heard about three o'clock?"
"That was Dad; he told you it was about one."

Miss Waller—"Will you give a sentence with the word 'innocent'?"
Mary Wright—"The deacon was a pious man,
To church he always went,
He passed the contribution box,
But never put inacent."

Helen Bell—"You don't love me like you used to!"
Ed—"Well, don't you expect me to keep up with the latest developments?"

Manard—"Have you any balcony seats?"
Ticket Seller—"Yes, but we still have some orchestra seats left."
M.—"Say, who's buying these tickets?"

"How do you spell 'financially'?"
"F-i-n-a-n-c-i-a-l-l-y, and there are two n's in embarrassed."

A woman's mind is as uncertain as a grapefruit's squirt."

TEENY DUDLEY—"Is there any art in kissing?"
FRANCIS MCBEE—"The only art is, 'art thou willing'."

"Shh! Don't answer me now, I hear footsteps."
"Oh, that's all right; that's just me coming to a decision."

"I Want to Go Where You Go"—"SPARK" & "BETTY."
"In The Garden of Tomorrow"—EVELYN GILL.
"Tea for Two"—"BANG" CANNON.
"Never Let A Man Fool Me"—HELEN BELLE HENRY.
"Remember"—WILMA CARDER.
"Where, Oh Where Is The Tea Kettle Gone"—MARY DAVIS.

"Yearning"—WHAT WE ALL DO.
"It's The Blues"—LEAVING HOME AGAIN.
"Big Bad Bill is Sweet William Now"—MISS BOWMAN.
"No One Knows What It's All About"—NEW GIRLS, first of school.
"When the Lights are Low"—AFTER TEN IN V. I. C.
"My Sugar"—CORA PEARCE.

"BOOSH"—"'Betty,' do you know the height of Mary's intelligence?"
"BETTY"—"No."
"BOOSH"—"She has Fairy Tales in her room."
MARY (overhearing discussion)—"'Boosh' is so dumb she can't even assimilate them; she asked me to come over and tell her about them when I finished."

STRANGER (at gate)—"Is your mother at home?"
YOUNGSTER—"Say, do you suppose I am mowing this back yard because the grass is long?"

"All time is lost that might be better employed."

MR. BYRD—"Josephine, are you going to round out your education this year?"
JO—"No, dad, I'm just going back to college."

"ADAM"—"Did you hear Mr. Yost's baccalaureate?"
"DOT" SMITH—"No, but all those foreign cars are dreadfully noisy."

MRS. BROWN—"Are you familiar with Browning?"
MISS BURRIS—"Yes, I was a baker for 12 years."

"PUSS"—"My man is divine."
"MISH"—"Your man may be de vine but my man is de berries."

PALMIRA—"Let's kiss and make up."
"DOT"—I have already made up and a kiss would spoil it."

SAND—"And she's so stingy, she even wears lace oxfords."
WICH—"And why lace oxfords?"
SAND—"They're tighter."

"BETTY"—"It certainly is in vogue."
"SPARK"—"But, my dear, I am sure I saw it in 'Vanity Fair'."

MISS SHEARER—"What is a metropolis?"
FLORINE—"A foot-doctor, I guess."

"BROWNIE"—"What did she pay for it?"
"TOMMIE"—"Fifty cents in a parsien ten-cent store."

MISS MCGRATH—"What is modern history?"
WILMA CARTER—"Herstory."

PALMIRA—"Don't you all fall in love with the Pope?"
MABEL WITT—"Why?"
PALMIRA—"'Cause, I saw him first."

ANNABELLE HOYT—"What is hydrophobia?"
EVELYN LLOYD—"Soft drink, like root-beer."

MISS MCCOY—"Why do they put B. C. after some dates?"
ELIZABETH HODGES—"Because they have to guess at most of the dates, so they put B. C.—'bout correct."

DR. NOFFSINGER—"Have you any abnormalities?"
ANNE LOUISE KENNEDY—"No, sir, I had them removed before I came to Intermont."

WHY TEACHERS TURN GRAY:

QUESTION: What was "Pilgrim's Progress?"
ANSWER: The crossing of the ocean by the Pilgrims in 1614.
QUESTION: What was July 4th?
ANSWER: The fourth king of Germany."
QUESTION: Tell us about the Greek race.
ANSWER: I wasn't there. I went to the show.
QUESTION: Who wrote Gray's "Elegy?"
ANSWER: John Milton."

SOPHOMORE—"What is your greatest ambition, Fresh?"
FRESHMAN—"To die a year sooner than you."
SOPHOMORE—"What is your reason for that?"
FRESHMAN—"So I'll be a Sophomore in —— when you get there."

MISS PFLUG—"You can't sleep in my class, Helen."
HELEN COCHRAN—"I know it, I've tried for the last half hour."

"PAT"—"Why do they call you 'Bill'?"
EVELYN ALSOVER—"Because I was born on the first of the month."

PROBLEM 9988772345

"If a girl goes up stairs at 6:15 to dress for her date and weighs 104 pounds, what is the wait of the young man downstairs?"

"DOT" PEELE—"What's the idea of dating the letter six days ahead of time?"
MARGARET EGBERT—"Well, I thought I would get you to mail it for me."

MARY ELLEN LUCIS—"Mother, how did Daddy get to be a professor at college?"
MRS. LUCIS—"So, you've begun to wonder, too, have you?"

DUMB—"I asked if I might see her home."
BELL—"What did she say?"
DUMB—"She said she would send me a picture of it."

The twelfth commandment no one breaks,
And yet a lot we'd give
So see it broken, for it reads,
Alas, "The dumb must live."

GRACE FORD—"How do you spell your last name?"
MARY GRAYSON (absent-minded)—"M-a-r-y."

"BETTY"—"Oh, aren't you pepped about going to see 'Madame Butterfly'?',
"BANG"—"Yes, and I can hardly wait for her to sing 'Poor Butterfly" which comes from that opera."

"ADAM" (writing home)—"Please wire money at once, I'm broke."
DAD's wire back—"So's your ole man."

DORIS—"Mary Belle is too dumb for words."
MARTHA—"How come?"
DORIS—"She thinks a genius can only die of Bright's Disease."

"Of all the sad surprises,
There's nothing to compare
With treading in the darkness
On a step that isn't there."

The Pope had to leave town because he lost his supporters.

CARMEN—"Betty, won't you have some more ice cream?"
"BETTY" Y.—"No, 'Spark' says I do not want any more."

MISS EGBERT—"Where is iron found?"
"MIKE" STAPLES—"At the iron foundry, of course."

"My room8 sad to rel8
Came 2 in a terrible st8;
Though he'd had 2 glasses
Of whiskey str8
He st6 2 the story—
'Twas something he 8'."

MISS WALLER—"Use the word 'serenade' in a sentence."
MARY GRAYSON—"My sister Serenade an apple last night."

OLGA DUBUC—"Why does she always cuddle next to the driver?"
"BILLY" DUBUC—"She's working for her father."
OLGA—"Where's the connection?"
"BILLY"—"You see, he's in the auto wrecking business."

"Don't kiss me, please," sweet Mary cried,
"It isn't customary."
And then, oh then, you should have heard
That fellow cus-to-Mary.

CHRISTINE—"Did he show you a good time?"
MARGARET GRAYSON—"Yes, he took me to the park and let me look in at the dancers."

"MISH"—"Bibba is her mother's idol."
PAULINE—"Yes'm, she's idle most of the time."

EBBIE—"Where does a man get fat after he's old?"
KAY—"I'll bite."
EBBIE—"At the butcher's, of course."

LITTLE GIRL—"Let's play Cinderella."
LITTLE BOY—"Naw, your feet are too big."

ADS

The value of an institution to a community is measured by the service it renders

SERVICE as applied to a department store must have a very broad meaning—must cover its entire field of operation, from the planning and buying of the right merchandise to final delivery to customer. To serve in a manner most beneficial has ever been our aim, which has been responsible for constant growth for more than a third of a century.

"As good as any—

Better than most"

An Honest Tribute to Orange-Crush Dealers

THE good business man knows that nothing is so profitable as a satisfied customer.

The merchant who sells Orange-Crush pays a trifle more for it than he would for inferior substitutes, yet he sells it at the same price. He builds constantly increasing sales.

The poor business man thinks that it pays to trick his patrons with cheapened imitations. He builds ill-will—and deserves your suspicion.

Respect the dealer who hands you Orange-Crush—in the Krinkly Bottle. He is a good business man.

Why Orange-Crush is so Refreshing:

First, healthful carbonated water—next, the juice of luscious oranges—next, the delicate flavor of their peel. Added to this, the zestful tang of the fruit acid found in oranges, lemons and limes—a pure food color, such as you use in your cakes and candies—pure cane sugar.

Order by the Case—Keep it Always on Ice
